Explanatory notes to the form 'Application for Crime Victim Compensation'

General information

What is the Criminal Injuries Compensation Fund?

The Criminal Injuries Compensation Fund is an independent body of the central government. It makes single payments to victims of intentional crimes of violence who, as a consequence, suffered a serious physical or psychological injury. Surviving relatives of victims who are either dead because of a violent crime of passed away because of a culpable offence may also be eligible for compensation of the Compensation Fund. This also applies to the families of victims who suffered a serious and permanent injury because of the violent crime.

Examples of crimes of violence are?

Physical abuse, robbery, incest, rape, threat of violence, stalking, and human trafficking.

How does the Compensation Fund determine whether an injury is serious?

To this end, the Compensation Fund has a list of injuries. This list indicates the physical or psychological injuries considered to be serious by the Compensation Fund. For this list of injuries refer to www.schadefonds.nl. The Compensation Fund may also ask a medical consultant to assess the injury.

What is the intention of the compensation?

The compensation is a social expression of solidarity and a token of acknowledgement of the wrong and the distress the victim has suffered. The compensation is paid from taxpayers' money and is not intended to cover all damages. The compensation is intended to restore some confidence to the victim and to support the victim financially, so that he/she may again focus on the future. The recipient may spend it as he/she pleases.

How does the Compensation Fund determine the amount of the compensation?

The Compensation Fund uses six injury categories, which relate to six corresponding amounts. The Compensation Fund determines which injury category corresponds with the injury suffered. The corresponding amount is the compensation paid to the victim for the injury (the immaterial damage) suffered and any resulting loss incurred, such as medical expenses and reduced income.

Did a relative of yours die as a result of a violent crime?

In that case, you can apply for compensation by completing the form 'Application Compensation for Surviving Relative'. For this form, refer to www.schadefonds.nl.

Time limit for submission

The Compensation Fund will handle your application if it has been submitted within ten years after the (end) date of the violent crime. The Compensation Fund can only handle applications submitted after this period, if a valid reason is given for the delay.

Damages

The Compensation Fund only gives compensation for damage/ loss that has not been compensated for otherwise. Did you receive damages from, for example, the offender or your insurance company? In that case, you must fill in the amount of the damages received. Please also enclose proof of the damages, showing the amount received and the damage/loss covered.

The Compensation Fund will then determine whether this amount must be set off against the compensation.

What to do if you receive damages after you have received compensation from the Compensation Fund? It is important that you inform the Compensation Fund thereof. The Compensation Fund will then determine whether this amount must be set off against the compensation.
